2020-21 Critical Repair Program Impacts

(Before)

(After)

52

critical repairs
completed

Repairs ran from roof to heating source replacement, from septic backup and mold removal, to floor joist and well repairs

68

individuals served; older adults, adults with disabilities, veterans, two Habitat homeowners, and families with children, especially during the height of the COVID epidemic

FRANCIS' HOME

The kitchen floor joists in 88-year-old Francis' home had rotted through. Critical Repair came in to fix the joists and replace the floor. In 2021-22, HFH-P will replace his back roof.

JUANITA'S HOME

With an insurance company requiring repairs before a policy renewal would occur on her elderly mother's home, Juanita's daughter asked for assistance with rotting siding and windows. We partnered with Senior Connections because of the scope of the job. HFH-P ordered the needed windows, which were delayed because of glass shortages, and completed the siding repair. Senior Connections covered the window replacement labor.

LUCY'S HOME

Sometimes we are called in for a simple deck step and railing replacement — critical for those with mobility issues. During COVID, we had many of these requests. In this case, Lucy's husband was rehabbing after a stroke.

JoAnn Rogers (far right), who lives in the first Habitat house built, was featured in our 20th anniversary video and is less than three years away from paying off her home!

A new Home FORE the Holidays family-friendly golf tournament over two weekends in Dec. 2020 and Jan. 2021 raised more than $10,000

A virtual Valentine Gala with the Free Clinic of Powhatan raised more than $70,000 that the nonprofits shared

3,256 volunteer hours worth $92,926

Monthly events at the ReStore, which opened in 2018 in the former Station 2 firehouse, helped to increase customers and double our store's gross revenue — food trucks, Shop 60 Day, 20th anniversary Sale-a-bration with special merchandise and a Juneteenth celebration. The ReStore has become a true community gathering space thanks to our dedicated store volunteers and customers.
